

Metair battery

South African energy storage company, Metair Investments, says that its Romanian units Prime Batteries and Rombat have completed the

Metair changes gears to take the growth road New strategy targets expansion and diversification in the automotive sector The new strategic direction of automotive components and

The zinc-air battery user literally removes a tab to break the seal, allowing air to flow into the cell, activating the battery and generating an electric current. The MetAir(TM) technology results in zinc-air

The MetAir Ranger, a 3.2 kilowatt hour battery system weighing less than 25 pounds, yields energy densities of 352 Wh / Kg and costs per kilowatt

Energy storage and automotive component specialist Metair has launched a programme to produce lithium-ion (li-ion) batteries across its

JSE-listed Metair Investments" Romanian battery subsidiary Rombat has been fined R389.7 million by the European Commission, which is likely to have serious financial implications on

South African industrial company Metair has finalised the sale of its Turkish battery subsidiary Mutlu Akü. Paul O"Flaherty, Metair CEO, told BEST

Metair released FY24 results. The year was characterised by significant progress in the business restructuring - cost reduction, optimising manufacturing and production efficiencies, rationalising

April 25, 2025: Metair Investments has posted an overall 28% EBIT boost from its remaining battery businesses after selling off its troubled Mutlu Akü Turkish lead acid firm last year.

South-African based firm Metair International Holdings Cooperatief bought Romanian battery producer Rombat in a deal worth EUR 43 million. PwC

A developer of advanced and portable power systems has announced the availability of its MetAir Ranger series for on-demand back-up

Metair Investments Limited announces Prime Batteries and Rombat have completed the installation of the Group"s first Lithium-Ion battery cell manufacturing and assembly facility in

Kieno speaks to Prof Ben Bladergroen Head of the Energy Storage Innovation Lab at University of the

Metair battery

Western Energy Storage Innovation Lab at the University of the Western Cape, where they are

Metair is still very much open for business and the group is able to accommodate new clients should they need automotive components or energy storage solutions, says new CEO Paul

November 17, 2024: The Turkish Competition Board has given the green light to plans for lead mogul Howard Myers' Quexco Incorporated business to acquire Turkey's troubled Mutlu Akü lead battery

Traditiona­lly, Metair has thrived as a local maker of lead-acid batteries, a relatively small cost component in internal combustion engine (ICE) vehicles. However, the rise of battery electric

Metair Investments, the automotive component and battery group made good progress on its stabilisation and turnaround strategy in the six months to June 30, despite volume decreases and

QuantumSphere, Inc. (QSI), a provider of advanced portable power systems, announced the availability of its MetAir(TM) Ranger series for on-demand

Another challenge is Metair's battery business, represente­d by First Battery in South Africa and Rombat in Romania, which collective­ly contribute 26% of group revenue. Traditiona­lly, Metair

Aftermarket Metair supplies primary batteries for ICE models to most OEMs, and has work in place for a number of different models in South Africa

First Battery automotive battery sales are expected to be down by around 9% due to reduced demand from local OEMs and a "price sensitive" local retail environment. However, the

September 23, 2024: Lead mogul Howard Myers' Quexco Incorporated business has agreed to acquire Turkey's troubled Mutlu Akü lead battery business from South Africa's Metair Investments in a $110

However, Metair said its energy storage division, which includes Mutlu Akü, Rombat in Romania and First National Battery in South Africa,

JSE-listed Metair Investments' Romanian battery subsidiary Rombat has been fined R389.7 million by the European Commission, which is likely to have serious financial implications on Rombat's...

September 30, 2022: BESB can confirm that Metair will decide on the potential sale of its international batteries division by year end, after reporting a robust performance for the unit in delayed interim half

Energy storage and automotive component manufacturer Metair says it will sell its troubled Mutlu operations in Türkiye to Quexco for R1.95

Metair battery

April 25, 2025: Metair Investments has posted an overall 28% EBIT boost from its remaining battery businesses after selling off its troubled Mutlu Akü Turkish lead acid firm last year. In full-year

Metair has been working closely with Hesto's technical partner and customer on the project to ensure its long-term success, which included a commercial price adjustment that provides strong support for

August 15, 2025: South Africa's Metair Investments has announced mixed results for its battery production companies Rombat and First National Battery for the first half of this year ending in June.

Newly appointed Metair CEO Riaz Haffeejee says the group is in a "good position" to be a "good partner" to a lithium-ion (li-ion) battery

Zinc-Air Battery System Surpasses Benchmark for Off-Grid Energy Source QuantumSphere, Inc. has released the MetAir Ranger series for on-demand back-up power in off-grid and emergency

Contact us for free full report

Web: <https://familykitchen.co.za/contact-us/>

Email: energystorage2000@gmail.com

WhatsApp: 8613816583346

